

GOVERNMENT OF RAJASTHAN
Administrative Reforms (Gr-3) Department

No.F6(16)/AR/Gr-3/2006/

Jaipur, Dated: 7-8-2007

ORDER

Government of Rajasthan has decided to implement e-GRAM Project, an e-Governance initiative for rural areas with the object of establishing a simple and regular feed back mechanism to ensure effective service delivery up to the village level. H.E. The Governor, Govt. of Rajasthan is pleased to accord approval of the constitution of State Level Steering Committee at the State level and District Level Steering Committee in each District of Rajasthan as follows:

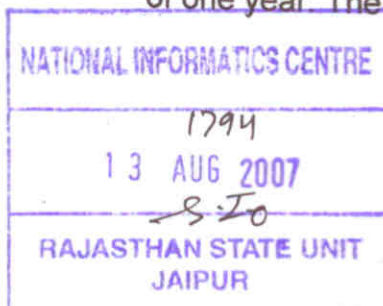

A.State Level Steering Committee:

S.no.	Constitution	Status
1.	Additional Chief Secretary (Development), Govt. of Rajasthan	Chairperson
2.	Pr. Secretary, Information Technology & Communication, Govt. of Rajasthan	Member
3.	Pr. Secretary, Rural Deve. & Panchayati Raj Department, Govt. of Rajasthan	Member
4.	Pr. Secretary to Hon'ble CM, Govt. of Rajasthan	Member
5.	Secretary, Planning, Govt. of Rajasthan	Member
6.	State Informatics Officer, NIC	Member
7.	Dy. Secretary, CM Office, Govt. of Rajasthan	Member Secretary

B.District Level Steering Committee:

S.no.	Constitution	Status
1.	District Collector	Chairperson
2.	Chief Executive Officer, Zila Parishad	Member
3.	S.E./E.E., PHED	Member
4.	S.E./E.E., RVVNL	Member
5.	C.M. & H.O.	Member
6.	Nodal Officer, e-GRAM nominated by District Collector	Member Secretary
7.	District Informatics Officer	Member

The implementation of e-GRAM shall be by NIC. This State Level Steering Committee will have the overall responsibility of implementation of e-GRAM Project in the State. The District Level Steering Committee will have the overall responsibility for implementation of e-GRAM Project in each District. Department of Information Technology & Communication will be the administrative department of this committee. The committee would be having its time duration of one year. The orders will be in force with immediate effect.

By Order

(Gajahand)
Dy. Secretary to Government
0141-5116143

P.T.O.